

1. Under the provisions established by the 1st Allied Infantry Brigade, the following will be used in the establishing the guidelines for Brigade Headquarters Departments for the fighting forces at the Battle of the Bulge Commemoration held at Indiantown Gap Military Reservation.
2. 1st Allied Infantry Brigade establishes the follow Department reporting to said Commander:
 - (a) Personnel Department under the direction of the Brigade Major has the responsibilities maintaining proper order and maintenance of the Brigade Commanders schedule.
 - (b) Adjutant Department has the responsibilities of coordination of the Brigade Departments. Will assists the Brigade Major were necessary.
 - (c) Transportation Department has the responsibilities of Brigade vehicle requirements. Vehicle Decals will be issued from this Department (G.O. No 1).
 - (d) Signals Department has the responsibilities to coordinate all wireless and phone communications within Area 12. They will coordinate with the other Brigade Departments.
 - (e) Provost Department has the primary responsibilities of maintenance of order, authenticity and discipline through out Area 12 as per War Department General Order Number 1 and Brigade General Order Number 4.
 - (f) Supply Department has the responsibility of keeping proper order all property assigned to the custody of the Brigade.
 - (g) Medical Department has the responsibility of ensuring all Task Force King medical (medics) personal are prepared for all possible contingencies.
 - (h) Intelligence Department has the responsibility of coordinating the activities of the reconnaissance and intelligent gathering sections for use by the Brigade and Task Force King. All requests for information will be sent to this Department for inclusion.
3. Major Martha Smith (CWAC) is appointed Brigade Major has the responsibility of coordination of the Personal Department of the Brigade Head Quarters. The Brigade Major has the authority to appoint additional personal as necessary to ensure correct and proper operations of the Head Quarters.
 - (a) The Brigade Major is to ensure proper coordination of Commanding Officers schedule.
 - (b) The Brigade Major may make command decisions in the absence of the Brigade Commander.
4. CSM David Farnham (B Company, 156th Parachute Battalion) is appointed Brigade Adjutant with the responsibility for the proper coordination of the Brigade Departments.
 - (a) CSM Farnham may make command decisions in the absence of the Brigade Commander and Brigade Major.

5. Lt Mat Curtis (US Army) is appointed Brigade Transportation Officer with the following responsibilities:
 - (a) Coordination of Brigade vehicle assets.
 - (b) Maintain a Vehicle Decals log for the Brigade and Task Force King as per Brigade General Order No.1.
6. Captain Peter Ness (Canadian Provost Corps) is appointed Brigade Provost for the duration of the event with the duties and responsibilities outlined in War Department General Order No. 2 and Brigade General Order No. 4.
7. Sgt Cris Petronis (Polish Parachute Battalion) is been appointed Brigade Signals Officer with the responsibilities of operating and maintaining Brigade communications network.
 - (a) Wireless communications network using the War Department communications network
 - (b) Landline communications network using the Brigade switchboard.
8. Petty Office Michael Mac Neal (Royal Navy Signals Detachment, 1st Airborne Division) is appointed to the Brigade Supply Department with the responsibilities of maintaining a complete listing of all property assigned to the Brigade for there use.
9. Lt Roger Roop (Belgium SAS) is appointed Brigade Reconnaissance Officer for Intelligence Department with the responsibility of:
 - (a) Coordination of the various intelligence assets of the department.
 - (b) Setting the objectives and activities of the Allied Reconnaissance Section.

By order of Brig W F Bethke
 OFFICIAL:
 (signature)

Approved
 CSM D Farnham, Brigade Adjutant
 OFFICIAL:
 (signature)

Distribution

Provost Marshall
 Task Force King
 Kampf Gruppe von Heinen